- Build an integrated live, virtual and constructive training environment
- Implement Training Transformation tasks to support DOD Strategy

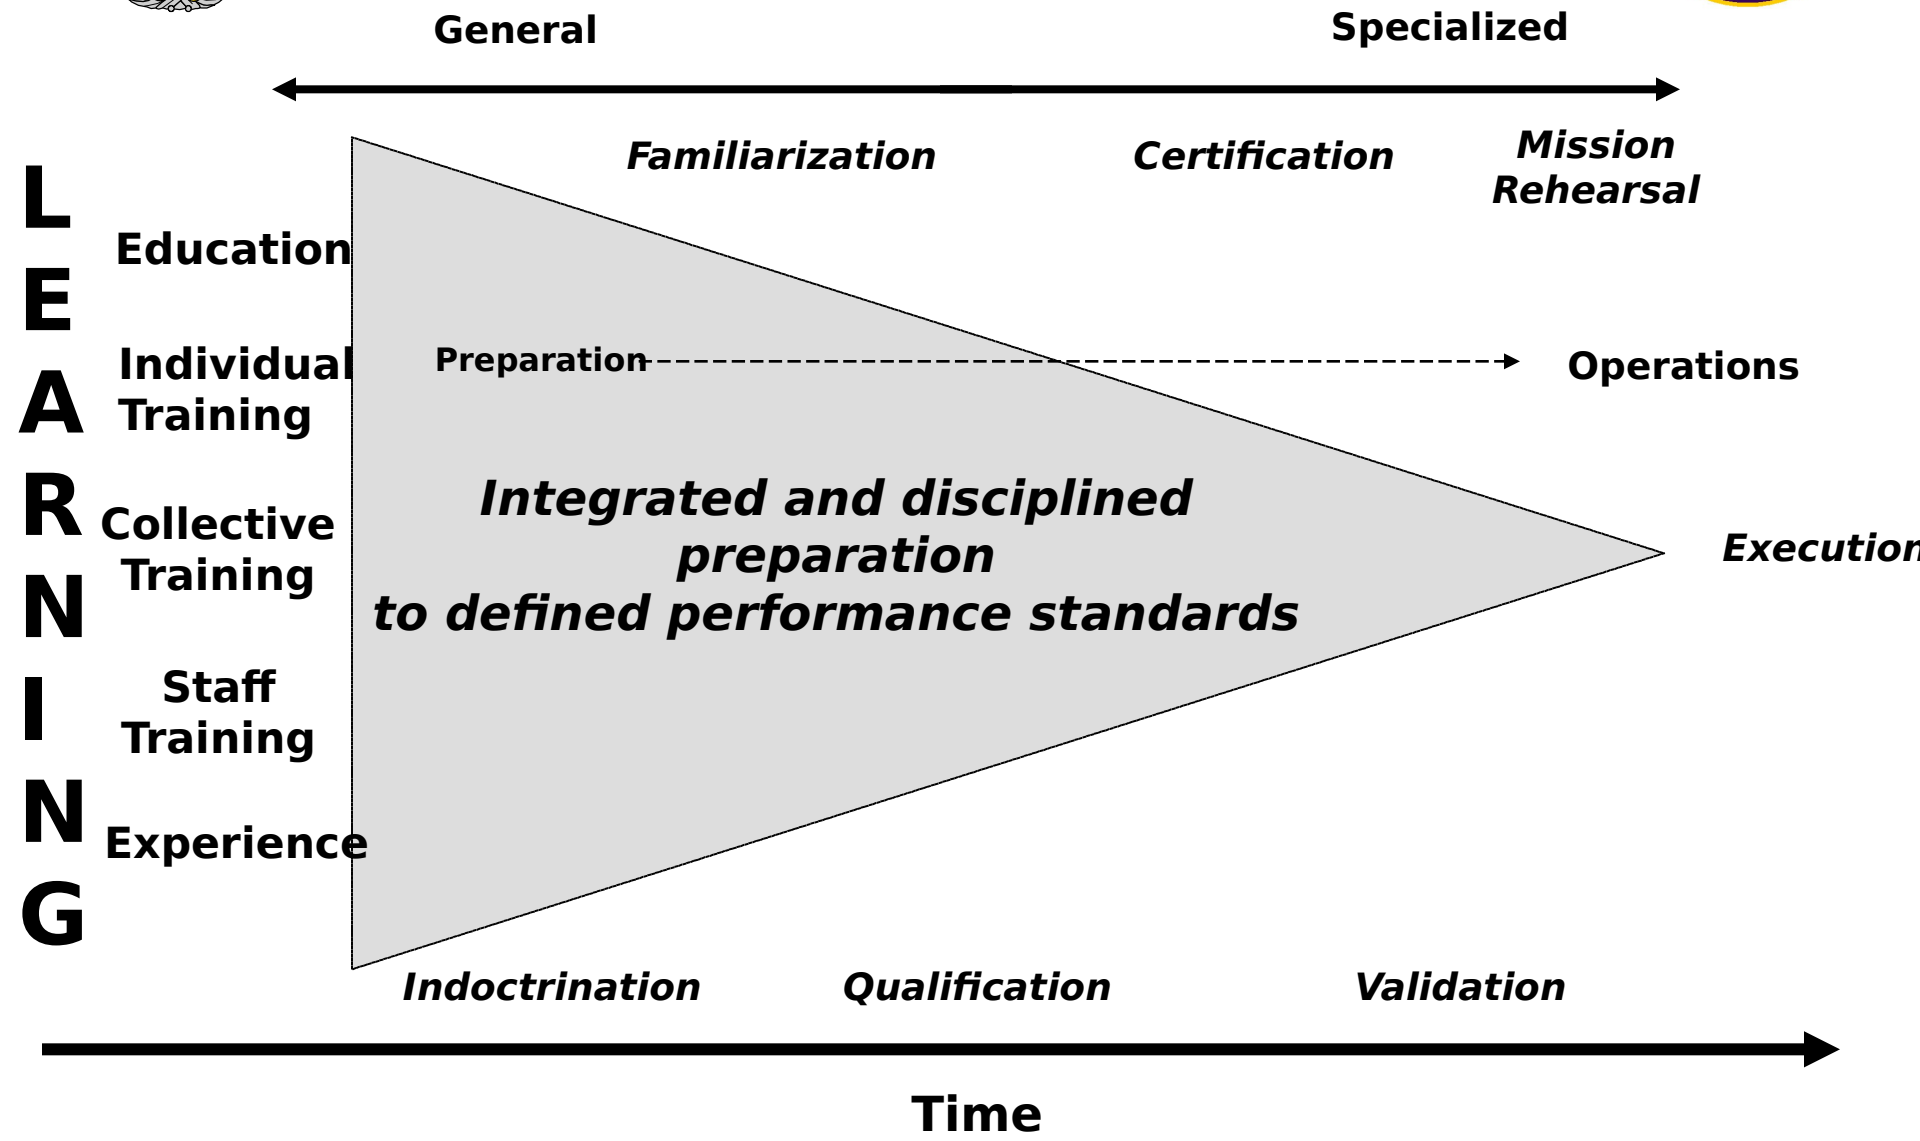
Joint Training Continuum



Expectations

- You will receive information, updates and status briefs on T2, TC AoA, DRRS, JLLP, the Joint Training FCB, Joint CBRNE Capability Team support to Combatant Commanders
- You will receive Combatant Commands' and Combat Support Agencies' top 3-5 joint training issues
- You will participate in one of three focused Breakout Groups – the heart and sole of this WJTC:

  Breakout Group 1: Joint Training Enablers

  Breakout Group 2: Joint Training Requirements at the Individual, Staff and Component Level

  Breakout Group 1: JFCOM Role as CJCS lead for Joint Training, the Joint Force Integrator, and Joint Force Provider

  ✓ Get to the issues, determine the inhibitors, enablers, desired capabilities

  ✓ Develop a Plan of Action and Milestones to address the issues – focus on the "How To" not the "What is"

  ✓ Your ideas are needed, we need to know what we must do to enhance your warfighting capability through joint training

Outcomes

- A framework for fixing the shortfalls in joint training: individual, staff, collective and component command levels
  - How are combatant command Joint Training Requirements linked to service component commands
  - How should training enablers (JTIMS, JRAT, UJTL, AoA etc.) evolve to support emerging Joint Training Requirements
  - How should the JTS support Plans and Readiness
- Establish the foundation/framework for the Future JTS
- Align CJCS Exercise Program and the JTS to better support T2, the CJCS, and the Combatant Commanders

Warrior Spirit

“It is not the critic who counts, nor the man who points out how the strong men stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly, who knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.”

Theodore Roosevelt
Police Commissioner
